Live, Learn, Flourish

LIVE, LEARN, FLOURISH

Roo Kelly for having the courage to talk more in front of the class and ask questions.

Joseph Dagger for doing his best even with an injured hand.

Fergus Davidson for his caring and helpful attitude.

Xavi Latham for showing courage during violin, when the whole class watched how to hold the violin correctly.

Amelia Robinson for having the courage to join in with PE even though she felt nervous in doing so.

Esme Blunden for showing courage when tackling challenging multiplication problems and being determined to understand methods.

Harley Snell for showing courage by joining in with dance in PE.

Tilly Brown for continuing to smile even with her foot in plaster!

Pearl Adesegun for her fantastic work exploring percentages in Maths.

Violet Cleaver for an excellent dinosaur fact page in English.

Jimmy Russell for trying hard with reading – it's making a difference!

Kean McGee for a fantastic introduction to his short story.

Joseph Todd for improvement in handwriting and a super effort when writing instructions.

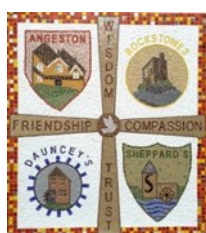

Rhys Spill for excellent independent Maths work – addition to 20.

Poppy Howarth for focus in phonics and reaping the rewards of her hard work.

Dauncey's

Well done Dauncey's for you amazing 3318 points over the autumn term. There will be a non-uniform day for Dauncey's this Friday 9th February.

Parents' Evening

I hope you have all returned your Parents' Evening slips. If you are unable to make any of the dates then please arrange to see the class teacher at another time.

World Book Day

World Book Day is on Thursday 1st March and this year we are going to explore the world of poems and rhymes. From action and humorous verses, tongue twisters and riddles to traditional verses, we will be immersed in poems and rhymes, and have a go at writing our own. Do you have a favourite poem? If you would like to start reciting then here are a few suggestions:

Juniors

Silver by Walter De La Mere
Jonathon Jo by A. A. Milne
On the Ning Nang Nong by Spike Milligan
The Dinosaur's Dinner by June Crebbin
Cats by Eleanor Farjeon
The Owl and the Pussy Cat by Edward Lear
Spaghetti! Spaghetti! By Jack Prelutsky
Where Teachers Keep Their Pets by Paul Cookson
Daffodils by William Wordsworth

Infants

Counting Rhymes
Finger Rhymes
Nursery Rhymes
Traditional Rhymes
Song of the Train by David McCord
"Quack!" said the Billy Goat by Charles Causley

Linked to the theme of poems and rhymes, we are planning to dress up on 1st March. Let's see if we can all guess which poem or rhyme we belong to!

Once a Week take a Peek

Head lice are a normal part of childhood - surveys among primary school children have found that nearly 1 in 10 have head lice at any one time. If you're a parent you probably know what a hassle it is to treat head lice and just how frustrating it can be when your child comes home scratching their head yet again.

<http://www.onceaweektakeapeek.com/> have a look at this website which gives you lots of guidance on managing head lice.

Colds and Bugs

There are a few illnesses around at the moment. Please follow the link below for more information.

PE Kit

We will send PE kit home at the end of each short term so it can be checked (and washed!). Don't forget to bring PE kit back to school, ideally on the first day back after each holiday.

Our prospectus says that PE should consist of:

- Dark coloured shorts
- White or red t-shirt
- Indoor gym shoes

Please also pop in a pair of jogging bottoms during the colder months and an extra pair of items of PE kit should be clearly named and kept in a clearly named PE bag.

socks. All

Don't forget that we are all happy to talk should you:

- like an update on your child's progress other than Parent's Evenings
- like more information on how to support your child at home
- like to celebrate your child's achievements in and out of school
- have a worry
- have any questions about your child's education
- need clarification/reminders on information
