

Valuing difference

Progression Ladder

Year 6

I can reflect on and give reasons for why some people show prejudiced behaviour and sometimes bully for this reason.

I can explain the difference between a passive bystander and an active bystander and give an example of how active bystanders can help in bullying situations.

Year 4

I can say a lot of ways that people are different, including religious or cultural differences.

I can explain why it's important to challenge stereotypes that might be applied to me or others.

Year 2

I can say how I could help myself if I was being left out.

I can give a few examples of good listening skills and I can explain why listening skills help to understand a different point of view.

Reception

I can think about the perspective of others.

I can build constructive and respectful relationships.

I can cooperate and resolve conflicts peacefully.

Year 5

I can give examples of different faiths and cultures and positive things about having these differences.

I can explain how people sometimes aim to create an impression of themselves in what they post online that is not real and what might make them do this.

Year 3

I can give examples of different community groups and what is good about having different groups.

I can talk about examples in our classroom where respect and tolerance have helped to make it a happier, safer place.

Year 1

I can say ways in which people are similar as well as different.

I can say why things sometimes seem unfair, even if they are not.
